

Prohibition!

The Speak Easy has been infiltrated by Feds, intent on shutting us down! Root them out so the party can go on!

Night

At night, the narrator tells everyone to close their eyes. The Feds only are then told to open their eyes. Without talking, they must agree amongst themselves which of the guests to have arrested. Then the Narrator instructs the Feds to close their eyes again.

Now the Godfather will open his or her eyes and point at a suspect; if that player is a Fed, the Narrator nods. Then the Narrator instructs the Godfather to close their eyes again and the Hostess to open their eyes; they point to someone to protect, then closes their eyes again.

Day

The Narrator tells everyone to wake up. Unless the Hostess and the Feds selected the same target an arrest is announced. This player is out of the game and becomes an assistant narrator.

During the daytime phase, the players deliberate over which suspected Fed they wish to nominate for expulsion from the Speak Easy. Once nominations are made, the Narrator administrates an election between the nominees, in which all players vote - whoever receives the most votes is expelled from the Speak Easy and flips their card up (revealing their true identity).

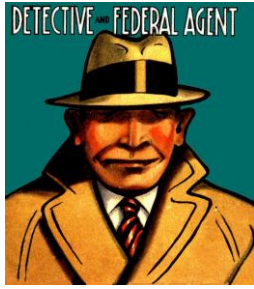

The day phase continues until an expulsion has been performed and the next night ensues.

Winning

The game ends either when the last Fed is expelled from the Speak Easy (Party victory!) or the Feds outnumber or equal the others during the day (Fed victory!).

May the party never end!

Fed

Drink is evil! Down with Fun!

You come out at night. You must silently agree with the other Feds which of the others will be arrested at dawn.

The Godfather

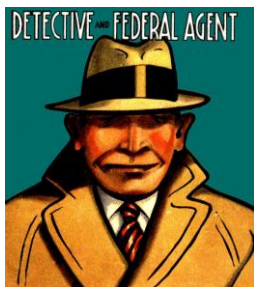

*I don't feel I have to wipe everybody out.
Just my enemies.*

Every night, you ponder and silently accuse one of the guests of being a Fed and, if you are right, it will be confirmed to you by the Narrator.

By day you must vote for your prey to be expelled from the SpeakEasy.

Every night, you may focus your protective instincts and one guest that you silently nominate is safe from the predations of the Feds.

By day you must vote for your prey to be expelled from the SpeakEasy.
