Writer's CV

About Me

In my day-to-day life I'm a consultant, mostly employed to talk to people, plan and meet deadlines. However, my passion is the telling and writing of stories in a variety of media, e.g. prose, TV, comics and radio. I am as yet unpublished and unproduced, but while submitting my work to competitions, agents and TV studios I continue to seek to improve my craft.

Education

A diploma in Literature and Creative Writing from the Open University, which covered writing in a wide range of different forms and for which I received good feedback for my dramatic scripts in particular.

Current Projects and Submissions

- Writing a feature film screenplay ahead of the London Screenwriter's Festival 2013
- Also developing a short film and a TV series
- Comic book script currently being illustrated by a US artist.

Past Submissions

- Placed in the top 25 in the London Screenwriter's Festival / Script Angel competition for a film pitch and 10 page writing sample
- 'Death Sentence', a flash fiction short story selected for Flash Flood, an online flash-fiction journal
- 'Why I Write', an article for the Urban Writer's 'Win a Writing Bootcamp' competition
- 'Parallel Words', an article for Bleeding Cool, a comics website
- Various articles for the eHow network of websites.
